DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. Applicant's amendment has overcome the rejections based on 35 USC 112, first and second paragraph.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

3. Claims 1-3 are finally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Duncan et al, 6,238,227 in view of Chen et al, 4,369,543. '227 discloses a mobile machine for grinding floor surfaces, comprising: a housing, only supported by two coaxially arranged wheels 14 and a plurality rotatably supported grinding disks, 78, 80, 82, the grinding disks being distributed over a planet disk 70 rotatably supported at the bottom of the housing and operatively connected to a motor, and the planet disk being drivable by the motor. '227 does not disclose two drive motors mechanically connected to the two wheels respectively; and a control unit influencing the direction of rotation and the rotational speed of the two drive motors, the control unit being operatively connected via a radio communications unit to an operating device, designed for manual actuation for remote control of the machine. In a floor treating device, '543 teaches providing each driven wheel 3, 4, with a respective drive motor, 16,17, and a radio control unit for controlling the speed and rotational direction of the wheels. '543 teaches using a radio control to drive the motors attached to the wheels, to control wheel direction and speed, to avoid the use of an electric cord that may tangle, or to avoid relying on a power source that may not be available. This teaching applies to all types of power driven devices, regardless of the type of power used. One of ordinary skill in the art would look to the teachings of '543 to show how to avoid reliance on a power source that may not be available on site, such as a gasoline powered apparatus, where the fuel may not be readily available at the time of desired use. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to have provided '227 with the two motors and radio control unit taught by '543, figures 1 and 3 and column 3, lines 23 through column 4, lines 3, to allow the device to be driven with convenient power that is always available, and is safe to operate, see column 1, lines 12-24.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-3 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection. Applicant's amendment has overcome the previous rejection. The examiner agrees that Godfrey et al, '469 does not disclose each driven wheel having a respective drive motor. However, '543 clearly teaches providing such drive means.

Conclusion

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within

Art Unit: 3723

TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
